

Autumn 2 week 1 SPAG homework

This week we have been recapping last half term's learning linked to word classes.

Has the underlined word been used as a verb or noun? Complete the key and colour the balloons the correct colour.

Verb = Noun =

We must address the problem quickly.

It is common for a lion to circle its prey.

What is your address?

The judge sentenced the defendant to three years in prison.

Who has a question for our guest?

Please draw a circle.

I took a quarter of the cake.

I will quarter the cake so that there is a piece each.

A full stop is used to end a sentence.

Please don't question my decision.

Choose the correct verbs so that the tenses are consistent and the sentence makes sense

1. Anna was sitting on the sofa and she was read/reading her book.
2. Tomorrow it will be very hot so I will need/needng sun cream.
3. Gino loves chocolate ice cream. It is/will be his favourite.
4. Pedro will watch/watched the football after he finishes the washing up.

The tenses in this paragraph have got muddled up. Rewrite it so that it is in the past tense. Do this in your book on the lines, not on the sheet here!

The little creatures are perfectly still for a moment then they began to twitch and eventually will come to life. As Martha watches, she is realising that they seemed to be having some sort of argument. The little mouse, who stands up on his back legs, will be wearing a red waistcoat with a shiny gold button. Whereas the tiny shrew, who is sitting on a pebble, wore a navy flat cap on top of his head, with miniature holes for each of his ears.
